

HERITAGE TRUST OF NOVA SCOTIA

PRESERVING NOVA SCOTIA'S BUILT HERITAGE

MEDIA RELEASE

Heritage Trust Reacts to Passing of Former President

(October 20, 2016, Halifax, Nova Scotia)

It is with great sorrow that Heritage Trust of Nova Scotia acknowledges the passing of a former president, Philip Desmond Pacey, on October 20, 2016. Phil was, and will remain, an extraordinary champion of Nova Scotia's architectural heritage. Phil's gentlemanly and analytical style of heritage advocacy has shone a spotlight on our province's heritage assets for decades and his untiring efforts to esteem our built culture has inspired new generations to recognize the richness of our province's heritage resources. Our sincerest sympathies and prayers are extended to his wife, Elizabeth.

-30-

Heritage Trust of Nova Scotia, founded in 1959, is a non-profit registered charity whose goal is to conserve buildings and sites of historic significance, and to promote this important cultural component of Nova Scotia's identity. For more information, visit: www.htns.ca | Twitter @HTNovaScotia | www.facebook.com/HeritageTrustNovaScotia.

Media Contact:

Joe Ballard, President

president@htns.ca

902-305-1878